

PLANNED GIVING

Including the Legal Services of Long Island in your will or trust is a meaningful way to help us continue to serve animals in need. Many of our programs and services have benefitted from individuals who had the foresight to include Legal Services of Long Island in their estate plans.

Ways You Can Give Through a Will or Trust:

- Leave a specific dollar amount or asset to the Legal Services of Long Island
- Designate a percentage of your estate to be given through your will or living trust.
- Give only the remainder, or residue, of your estate, or that which remains after bequests to loved ones have been made.

The following is an example of suggested language to include in your will/trust:

"I give and bequeath to Legal Services of Long Island, a not-for-profit law firm, with principal offices presently located at 1757 Veterans Memorial Highway, Suite 50, Islandia, New York the sum of _____, or _____% of my estate, to be used for the accomplishment of its general purpose of providing free civil legal services to Long Islanders in Need."

The material presented in this planned giving section is intended as general educational information on the topics discussed herein and should not be interpreted as legal, financial or tax advice. Please seek the specific advice of your tax advisor, attorney, and/or financial planner to discuss the application of these topics to your individual situation.
